

The stock market saw a decline due to global inflation.

Investors are worried about rising interest rates.

Cryptocurrencies have become highly volatile, while traditional assets like gold remain stable.

Financial literacy is crucial for making better investment decisions.